Town Council Update

Sad but true; Lorenzo Sandoval has stepped down from the mayor ship of Red Cliff. Zo and family have moved to another part of our county and can no longer serve. His brief tenure was highlighted by his knowledge, concern and love for his home, born and raised. He is missed and we long for his return. Our new Mayor Duke Gerber will rise to the occasion, we're sure. Another 100% local has shown his focus as board member and now will demonstrate his leadership and management skills as we move forward.

We are an incomplete board and would enjoy a citizen coming forward to share their perspective and fill the vacant seat available. Applications are due March 15th. Be first in line. See you soon!

Next BOT Meetings – Tuesdays – 7:00PM
February 19, March 5, March 19

Planning & Zoning Commission

The Town Planning and Zoning Commission is looking for interested folks to help shape the future of our community by joining. Have firsthand knowledge and direction to steer and guide our future! Town Stuff

Shout out to Floyd Duran. Thanks for getting our roads cleared (and somehow having the sun come behind you to finish the job). CITIZENS, If you can please make sure your water meters are easily accessible it would be greatly appreciated. (Note to self)

Turquoise Lake Fishing Derby

Kikki Hanncock was the triumphant Junior winner. A big effort by Nick Rainville to bring in the smallest fish deserves note. Gerry Shea has the bragging rights of supreme winner. A good time was had by all (Sorry you missed it. Inform, stay informed: ask to be on the email list or check out Facebook page Town of Red Cliff). Thanks Mike and Mara for your gracious effort to make this happen.
